DON'T STOP BELIEVIN' is originally a song by rock band Journey, but later popularized by the teen TV series Glee. It is described as an anthem for the young who wanted to feel free and unrestricted.

Composed by Jonathan Cain, Steve Perry, Neal Schon; arranged by Very A.M

NUS ANGKLUNG ENSEMBLE is a vibrant cultural club for NUS students centred around angklung: an instrument emphasising harmony between performers. Learning the basics is very easy; playing them with friends is fulfilling; and it sounds great!

Throughout the year, we perform at various venues outside and inside campus. Registration is open at the beginning of academic year.

Shaking the Classics

Cinderella

A mini-concert by
NUS Angklung Ensemble

Friday, 28 January 2010, 8pm

Prince George's Park Residence, Function Room 5

FOREWORD

It is with great pleasure that we bring to you the inaugural mini-concert of NUS Angklung Ensemble, Shaking the Classics: Cinderella.

Blessed with a strong executive committee, competent student conductors, and enthusiastic members, we decided to embark on a journey previously unheard of in the history of NUS Angklung Ensemble. Magnificent scores were written; intense practices were assumed; jokes were assembled; large and small hurdles were shunned. No sponsors, just us.

We believe that our original mix of traditional and popular songs as well as humour – presented with the curiously exquisite instrument – will make you deeply satisfied and entertained. Enjoy the show!

Leontius Adhika Pradhana

NUS Angklung Ensemble President, 2010/2011

GRATITUDE

In this great occasion we would like to sincerely thank the following parties for helping us making the concert a reality:

- Ms. Faridah Jamal and Mr. Very Agung Madrianto, being our faithful instructor and advisor, not to mention arranging several of the songs;
- Ms. Lyana Wang, Office of Student Affairs, who guided us in the execution of the concert and making sure that we do not step on anyone's toes in the process;
- Lee Wen Qin, NUS CAC President and Tan Da Yang, NUS CAC Interim President for semester 1, as well as NUS CAC executive committee, who helped us with numerous publicity, administrative, and moral support;
- Bagus Wicaksono, for lending us an indispensable bass;
- The performers, NUSAE executive committee, and ushers, of whom sweat, laughter and joy during the various practices filled each one of us with everlasting memories;
- And last but certainly not least, each one of you that makes the concert actually meaningful and stand the test of time.
